

Sporting chance for kids

FITNESS TIME: BE PART OF AN INITIATIVE TO HELP LOCAL CLUBS AND SCHOOLS

IT'S time to take those seldom-used bats and footballs out of the back shed and put them to some good use.

This month Jetts Fitness at Mount Warren Park will be collecting new and pre-loved sporting equipment as part of the Sportember initiative, which they will hand on to local clubs and schools.

The fitness centre's owner Robyn Payens said the group was excited to be on board and making a difference for local community clubs and the children they support.

"Grass roots sport is at the heart of our local community and we want to do whatever we can to encourage youngsters to not only get involved but to have the opportunity to get involved," she said.

"At Jetts Fitness Mt Warren Park, we realise that not all families or sporting clubs are as fortunate as others and believe all children have the right to pursue their sporting dream, which is why we are proud to be supporting our local community through Sportember."

HELP OTHERS: Jetts Fitness manager Amanda Minelle wants your old sports gear.

Donate sporting equipment at Jetts Fitness, 140 Mount

Warren Boulevard, Mount Warren Park.

➔ Financial donations at www.sportember.com.au